DIRECTOR’S COMMENTS

This play has a special place in my heart. I first appeared in Lovers and Other Strangers as Susan 22 years ago, and have also directed the production once before. I would like to thank both the cast and crew for their support and efforts. I invite you to sit back, relax and enjoy our look into the 12 characters lives. Hopefully, you will recognize yourself or someone you know in each vignette.

—Carol Jones

WHO’S WHO IN THE CAST

(In Alphabetical Order)

STUART AION (Johnny) is coming off a twelve-year hiatus to reassure himself... he is “still crazy after all these years...” His past credits include stage, film, commercials, voice-overs...stuff! “That was then...This is now! Let the games begin!!”

STEVEN BLOOM (Richy) is delighted to be making his Barn Theatre debut. Previously, he played Mr. Krawler in The Diary of Anne Frank and the Fertility Doctor in the musical Baby, both with the Livingston Community Players. Behind the scenes, he assisted the stage manager for the West Orange JCC’s production of Funny Girl. When he is not acting, Steven enjoys tennis, traveling, the beach and consulting on Wall Street.
WHO'S WHO IN THE CAST

CAROL CATON (Bea) has appeared in many area theatres, but counts the Barn as her favorite place to work. Audiences here may remember her in Blithe Spirit, Rumors, Musical Comedy Murders of 1940, Plaza Suite, Brighton Beach Memoirs, and Absurd Person Singular. Elsewhere she has held leading roles in Cabaret, Steel Magnolias, Hay Fever, The Lion in Winter and The Sisters Rosensweig. This award-winning actress has found a way to combine her love of theatre and her love of family—her four granddaughters are currently “Divas in training.” “Thank you Howard.”

JON CREFFLED (Mike) is thrilled to be making his debut at the Barn. He last appeared on stage as Issachar in Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat with the Plays-in-the-Park series, where he also worked spot and appeared in Tommy. Otherwise, Jon just finished a five-year stint in the Army and is very happy for the chance to celebrate the human spirit and no longer be an automaton.

JOY EMILY EISNER (Joan) is making her first appearance at the Barn. Previous theatrical experiences include the Off-Broadway production of Laughing Matters, as well as various dinner theater productions and TV commercials. This Elementary School teacher was once crowned Miss Tri-County. Joy would like to thank her family and friends for their love and support.

LISA HODES (Susan) began acting in 1992 when she played Guendolyn in Little Mary Sunshine. Since then, she has performed in productions of the Cave Dwellers, Psycho Beach Party, and The Second Shepherd’s Play. Lisa also got a chance to work behind the scenes when she stage managed a children’s production of the Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe.

TC LESZCZYNSKI (Cathy) has been active in theatre most of her life, and feels it is gift to have the opportunity to share herself on the stage. She has worked throughout the area, including the Nutley Little Theater, Studio Playhouse of Montclair, Fair Lawn Old Library, and with the West Milford Players. She last appeared on the Barn stage in the Vaudeville Show this past Spring. Her last mainstage production was The Real Inspector Hound, and she counts Lucky in Waiting For Godot as her favorite role. She is also among the faithful volunteers vying for the “Queen of Hospitality” crown.

TODD MILLS (Jerry), who last appeared on stage in Black Comedy, began his stage career at age seven in the Passion Play, followed later by roles in Oliver!, Babes in Arms, Gypsy, You’re A Good Man Charlie Broun, A Few Good Men, and Sister Mary Ignatius Explains It All For You. Todd has stage managed/run lights for Evita, Follies, Shenandoah, Sugar Babies, Sweeney Todd, Into the Woods and Man of La Mancha. Todd can be heard on Saturday nights from 11 p.m. to 3 a.m. on WNTI 91.9FM in Hackettstown.

KATHY MONAGHAN (Wilma) returned to the Barn last month to appear in Voices as part of our one-act festival. She appeared as Joan in our production of Lovers and Other Strangers, her first show here, in 1977. Her last Barn mainstage appearance was as Jack’s Mother in Into the Woods. The past few years she has kept busy doing solo and church performances. Area roles include: Khavis in Olympus on My Mind, Josephine in HMS Pinafore, Mabel in Pirates of Penzance, Dolly in Hello Dolly!, Princess Puffer in Edwin Drood, and Commissioner Doyle in Annie Warbucks.

LAUREN MORAN (Brenda) was last seen at the Barn in Sugar Babies and as the Narrator in A Partridge in a Pear Tree. Other credits include Praxitha in The Prodigal, Mee in The Diary of Anne Frank, Rosie in Bye Bye Birdie, Sonya in Godspell, Gemini Twin in ...Forum, and in the musical Hair. She was also a performer with NJ Renaissance Festival & Kingdom, and appeared in the independent films Loose Women, Puppet, and How. Lauren received her Drama and Dance degree from CCM, and continued her training at the Lee Strausberg Theater Institute in NYC.

LAWRENCE SAUNDERS (Hal) is making his Barn debut. He has been a part time actor/model for the last eleven years. Lawrence has appeared in many films, TV shows and print ads. Most recently featured in the November issue of Consumer Reports Magazine. “If it wasn’t for the love and support of Linda, none of this would be possible.”

JERRY WYMAN (Frank) has appeared at the Barn in several of our one-act festivals, the holiday show, the Vaudeville Show, and as Inspector Foote in After Magritte. Area credits include Ernie in Rumors, Murray in The Odd Couple, Saunders in Lend Me A Tenor, and Porterhouse in Run for Your Wife. He is thrilled to have the opportunity to do this role, especially with such a great cast and crew. “Special thanks and all my love to #63.”
WHO’S WHO BEHIND THE SCENES

CAROL JONES (Director, Set Design) was seen as Susan in our 1977 production of Lovers and Other Strangers. She has been both on and backstage in more than 60 Barn shows. When not at the theatre, Carol is kept busy as a Lincoln Park Councilwoman and member of several Morris County Advisory Boards, The United Way, Chilton Hospital Foundation, and making a home for her husband (Ed) of 25 years and her three cats.

DEBBIE GANTERT (Producer) has been involved in professional and community theatre for the last 21 years, primarily in stage management and lighting, for such group’s as The Classical Theatre Foundation (NYC), The East Lynne Company (Rutherford, NJ), California Actor’s Theatre, among others. This past holiday season, she directed a new adaptation of the children’s classic, The Little Prince. Lovers and Other Strangers is her ninth Barn production.

JENNIFER TILL (Asst. Stage Manager) is making her theatrical debut backstage at the Barn. She would like to thank a whole bunch of “strangers” for so much love.

JIM RORKE (Stage Manager) has been involved at the Barn Theatre, onstage and backstage, for many years. He was stage manager for the Vaudeville Show last Spring. Jim is also a past member of our Board of Directors. When not working as an operating room nurse at St. Clare’s Hospital in Denville, he enjoys being a “tour guide” for his family and friends from Scotland when they visit. He thanks the cast and crew for “understanding all of hims.”

ROGER CLARK (Set Design & Construction) started at the Barn in 1970 in the play Desperate Hours. Since then he has served on the Board of Directors and has built sets for shows such as South Pacific, Sweeney Todd, Into the Woods, Foxfire, Evita, I Hate Hamlet, Chess, and Sylvia. Roger works as a computer analyst for NY Life. Although he has appeared onstage, Roger prefers the offstage work. He is a resident of Rainbow Lakes.

BOBBI FRIEDHOFF (Set Decor) recently completed stage managing Romeo and Juliet for Rockaway Townsquare Players. This season at the Barn, Bobbi was the stage manager for our season opener, Sylvia, codirector for our holiday show The Little Prince, and director of No Exit in our one-act festival. She was also the Associate Producer for RTP’s Concert Series. Bobbi has appeared on stage at the Dutch Apple Dinner Theatre in Evita, Oklahoma and Showboat.

LARRY WILBUR (Lighting Design) has previously appeared on the Barn stage in Don’t Dress for Dinner, Summer & Smoke and The Miracle Worker. Area credits include 1776, The Secret Garden (Archibald Craven) and Evita (Juan Peron). Larry’s various backstage talents have been seen and heard here in Black Comedy, The Miracle Worker, South Pacific, Blithe Spirit, Chess, A Few Good Men, Into the Woods, Dancing at Lughnasa, Don’t Dress for Dinner, and Sugar.

GIL COLLINS (Lighting Operation) had his first experience with the Barn with Marty Wilder in 1990. Valerie Waller and Beth Eden (long-time Barn lighting specialists) were his mentors. He has worked more than 30 productions at local theatres, including the Barn, Rockaway Townsquare Players, Marcella Community Art Center (Rockaway), and Playwriters Theater (Madison). Gil owns a party rental business in Denville.

RYAN MAIZEL (Lighting Operation), has run lights and sound for various community theatres throughout the area, including Little Night Music in Succasunna. A “techie” since high school, Ryan recently ran lights for the Vaudeville Show and Sugar here at the Barn. Ryan is a graduate of the University of Florida.

BARBARA PAPAROZZI (Properties) has worked backstage doing everything from costumes to lights to stage managing at local theatres for more than 20 years. She has been privileged to work with excellent directors, casts and crews on such Barn shows as The Little Prince, Play it Again, Sam, Bells Are Ringing, Summer and Smoke, Inspector Hound/After Magritte, Don’t Dress for Dinner, A Few Good Men, The Odd Couple, Sylvia, and the Vaudeville Show.
ROSE MOSUCCO (Properties) started working props several years ago at the Parsippany Playhouse. Since then, she has worked with Woodlyn Productions, The Enchanted Players in Boonton, and The Madhatters's Theatre for Children and numerous mainstage productions here at the Barn.

PEGGY UBRIACO (Costumes) is a relative newcomer to the Barn Theater. We welcome her contribution to this crew, and hope this will be the beginning of a long association with us.

ELLEN TOBY (Make-Up/Hair Design) is in her ninth season at the Barn. She has designed and assisted hair and make-up for many Barn shows, (Sylvia, Steel Magnolias, Camelot, Hello Dolly!, Falsettos, Play It Again, Sam, and The Real Inspector Hound/After Magritte.) and has even gotten onstage a few times, most recently in the Barn’s 1998 Vaudeville Show. Ellen has also done some work with the West Milford Players and make-up for several musical productions at Kinnelon H.S.
